PROSPECTS APLENTY

- The Massachusetts roster features 10 NHL draft picks, the most in program history, which is tied for eighth nationally and tied for third in Hockey East. Six of the 10 draftees are newcomers to the squad for 2022-23, including a pair of transfers in senior forward Josh Nodler (Calgary, 2019 fifth round) and junior goaltender Cole Brady (New Jersey, 2019 fifth round) along with freshmen forwards Tyson Dyck (Ottawa, 2022 seventh round), Kenny Connors (Los Angeles, 2022 fourth round) and Cole O'Hara (Nashville, 2022 fourth round) and freshman defenseman Noah Ellis (Vegas, 2020 sixth round).
- The four returning draftees are all sophomores: Scott Morrow (Carolina, 2021 second round), Taylor Makar (Colorado, 2021 seventh round), Lucas Mercuri (Carolina, 2020 sixth round) and Ryan Ufko (Nashville, 2021 fourth round).

BLUelinERS BACK

- The Minutemen return three individuals on the blue-line who saw significant time in the lineup last season, led by 2022 First Team All-American and First Team Hockey East All-Star Scott Morrow. Morrow, the first rookie in program history to earn All-America recognition, is one of just four First Team All-Americans returning to college hockey in 2022-23.

- He will look to build on an impressive freshman campaign which saw him finish second for UMass in scoring with 33 points on 13 goals and 20 assists, appearing in all 37 games. He ended the season tied for sixth among the nation's freshmen in goals (13), seventh in points (33) and 11th in points per-game (.892). He was third among rookie defensemen in points per-game, second in goals and points and fifth in assists (20).

- Among all defensemen nationally, Morrow finished eighth in points per-game, tied for fourth in goals and fifth in points. He finished his rookie campaign +11 and contributed three power-play goals and three game winners. The Darien, Connecticut native became the fourth defenseman in program history to reach the 30-point plateau and first to do so as a freshman, later joined by classmate Ryan Ufko. Morrow's 13 goals tied for fourth-most by a defenseman in a single season in program history, with the only Minutemen defensemen to score more in a single season being UMass Hall of Famer Thomas Poec (twice) and Hobey Baker winner Cale Makar (16 in 2018-19).

- Morrow was Hockey East's top scoring rookie and led all defensemen in league play with 23 points over 24 games. He tied for seventh with 11 goals and tied for sixth in points per-game (9.583), first among rookies and first among defensemen in both categories.

- Ufko was a Hockey East Honorable Mention All-Star and a Hockey East All-Rookie Team honoree last season and finished second on the squad in assists with 26 over 37 games to go along with five goals for 31 points, good for third on the Minutemen roster. He led Hockey East in league play with 19 assists in 24 games and tied for sixth in scoring in league action with 22 points as he also netted three goals.

- Ufko finished tied for the national lead among rookie defensemen in assists and third among rookie defensemen in points. He contributed three power-play goals and one shorthanded goal and posted a +5 rating on the year.

- Junior Aaron Bohlinger missed time due to injury last season but still managed to put up 13 points (2g, 11a) over 30 games, including the overtime game winner over UConn in the Hockey East title game. Two of his three career goals are championship clinchers as he also had the game winner for the Minutemen in the 2021 National Championship vs. St. Cloud State.

NEXT STOP: AMHERST, MA

- The Minutemen have five players on their 2022-23 roster who began their collegiate careers at other institutions before electing to transfer to UMass, including four new arrivals for this season.

- 6-5, 181-pound left catch goaltender Cole Brady, a 2019 fifth round draft pick of the New Jersey Devils (127th overall), comes to UMass as a transfer out of Arizona State and is a junior for the Minutemen this season. Over two years with the Sun Devils, Brady appeared in 25 games with 23 starts and posted a 3.60 goals-against average and a .905 save percentage with one shutout. He had 30+ saves in 17 games and recorded 40+ saves on five occasions.

- 5-10, 180-pound, left-shot forward Matt Koopman joins the Minutemen as a graduate transfer following four years at Providence. Koopman saw action in 113 games with the Friars and posted 32 points on 15 goals and 17 assists and was +7. As a freshman, he was part of the Providence squad that reached the 2019 Frozen Four.

- 5-11, 193-pound, left-shot defenseman Elliott McDermott comes to UMass following two seasons at Colgate and has junior eligibility in 2022-23. McDermott appeared in 62 games over two seasons at Colgate and registered 19 points on four goals and 15 assists. The Kingston, Ontario native was a two-time ECAC Hockey All-Academic Team and Raider Academic Honor Roll member.

- 5-10, 195-pound, right-shot forward Josh Nodler, a 2019 fifth round (150th overall) draft pick of the Calgary Flames, joins the Minutemen after playing three seasons at Michigan State and is a senior for UMass this season. Nodler appeared in 99 games over three seasons with the Spartans and registered 34 points on 13 goals and 21 assists with five power-play goals and two game winners. The Oak Park, Michigan native won 54.1% of his faceoffs as a junior, good for second on the team, while taking a squad-best 573 draws. Nodler earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in 2020-21 and 2021-22, won the team's Amo Bessone Award, honoring athletic and academic achievement along with community involvement in 2020-21 and was an AHCA Kram-pade All-American Scholar in 2019-20, while also earning the team's Rookie of the Year award.

- The transfer portal has been kind to the Minutemen in recent memory—St. Lawrence transfer Carson Gicewicz led UMass in with 17 goals in 2020-21 with four coming at the NCAA Regional. Minnesota transfer Garrett Wait scored the overtime game winner against Minnesota Duluth to send UMass to the 2021 National Championship game and finished with 17 points (9g, 8a) in his first season with the Minutemen and put up 25 points (13g, 12a) as a senior. Providence transfer Jerry Harding has brought a physical presence to the UMass and is now wearing a letter as a senior.

- In the Minutemen's 2018-19 run to the National Championship game, St. Lawrence transfer Jacob Pritchard logged 47 points in 41 games that season, including seven power-play goals.

HOME IS WHERE THE WINS ARE

- UMass have gone 72-21-6 at the Mullins Center over the past three-plus seasons (2018-present) for a .756 winning percentage. This stretch included a 16-game unbeaten streak (15-0-1) that began on Jan. 11, 2019 against Vermont and came to an end on Nov. 30, 2019 with a 2-1 loss to Quinnipiac.

HEAD COACH GREG CARVEL

Seventh Season - Career Record (Entering 2022-23): 202-170-30

Record at Massachusetts (Entering 2022-23): 116-88-12

Alma Mater: Saint Lawrence '93/Massachusetts '98G

2019 Spencer Penrose Award winner Greg Carvel enters his seventh season as head coach of the Minutemen in 2022-23 after guiding UMass to back-to-back Hockey East Tournament Championships in 2021 and 2022 and its first NCAA Division I Men's Ice Hockey National Championship in 2020-21. The National Hockey League (NHL) coaching veteran was named the 14th ice hockey head coach at the University of Massachusetts on March 29, 2016.

In 2021-22, Carvel's sixth season at the helm, the Minutemen won their second straight Hockey East Tournament title, defeating UConn, 2-1 in overtime at the TD Garden on March 19, 2022, punching their ticket to a third consecutive NCAA Tournament. Senior forward Bobby Trivigno became the second Hockey East Player of the Year in program history and second of Carvel's tenure, was a Top-10 Finalist for the Hobey Baker Award, the College Hockey News Player of the Year, repeated as the winner of the Walter Brown Award and was one of two First-Team All-Americans from UMass, joined by Scott Morrow, the first freshman in program history to earn All-America status. Trivigno was also the Hockey East 2021-22 Scoring Champion and headlined a group of five Minutemen to garner Hockey East All-Star recognition. Carvel has coached 18 Hockey East All-Stars in the past five seasons, more than any other program in the league over that span.

On April 10, 2021, the Minutemen defeated St. Cloud State, 5-0 in the National Championship game, reaching the pinnacle of college hockey in the fifth season of Carvel's tenure. En route to the title, UMass outscored its opponents 27-6 in the 2020-21 postseason, and 17-3 in the NCAA Tournament.

Additionally in 2020-21, Carvel led UMass to the No. 3 seed in the Hockey East Tournament and the squad won three games on home ice to secure the Minutemen's first Hockey East Tournament Championship. Five Minutemen collected Hockey East All-Star honors, the second highest total in program history, while Trivigno was named the program's first-ever winner of the Walter Brown Award as the best American-born player in New England and Josh Lopina was tabbed Hockey East Co-Rookie of the Year, the first-ever from UMass.

Trivigno earned a First Team All-America nod, as well, and defenseman Zac Jones was tabbed a Second Team All-American. UMass ended the 2020-21 campaign on a 14-game unbeaten streak, the longest unbeaten streak in program history, going 11-0-3 since January 22 and the Minutemen finished with a 20-5-4 record, the fewest losses for an NCAA Champion since Maine's 40-1-2 season in 1992-93. Carvel was tabbed the USCHO and College Hockey News Coach of the Year in 2021. In addition, he was also the 2021 Spencer Penrose runner-up.

Over the past six years, Massachusetts hockey has made a meteoric rise under Carvel's guidance, including five of the top-10 winningest seasons in UMass' 92-season history, the program's first NCAA title, first NCAA Runner-Up finish, first Hockey East regular season and tournament titles and first Hobey Baker winner. On his watch, the Minutemen posted their fourth-straight 20-win season in 2021-22. He has coached five Hobey Baker finalists, two Hobey Hat Trick Finalists and one Hobey Baker winner in his 11-year head coaching career.

UMass matched its then second-highest wins total in program history in 2019-20 with 21 victories and was poised to make its second-straight NCAA Tournament appearance before the season was cut short. The Minutemen finished eighth in the PairWise rankings and spent 22 straight weeks in the USCHO.com and USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine polls, while securing the No. 2 seed in the Hockey East Tournament.

John Leonard led the nation in goals and in goals per-game in 2019-20 and became the third Hobey Baker Top 10 Finalist in program history, the second of Carvel's tenure. Leonard collected a host of accolades as he was named a CCM/AHCA First Team East All-American, Herb Gallagher Award co-winner (New England's best forward), a Hockey East First-Team All-Star and the program's first winner of Hockey East's PNC Bank Three Stars Award. Two more Minutemen received postseason recognitions as Jake McLaughlin was tabbed a Hockey East Third-Team All-Star and Jones earned a spot on the Hockey East All-Rookie Team.

UMass enjoyed unprecedented success in 2018-19 with the team breaking program records for wins overall (31) and in conference play while finishing as the 2019 National Runner-Up after reaching the National Championship game. The Minutemen went 18-6-0 in Hockey East play and captured the school's first Hockey East Regular Season Championship.

Carvel's Minutemen also eclipsed previous school records for home and road victories and posted the longest win streak in program history in 2018-19. Taking a team that won just five games two seasons prior, Carvel led UMass to its first-ever No. 1 rankings in both the USCHO.com and USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine Polls.

UMass finished in the top-10 nationally in virtually every statistical category in 2018-19, including first in combined special teams (57.9) and power play percentage (28.5), third in scoring margin (1.66), third in scoring offense (3.68), fifth in penalty kill (86.9) and seventh in scoring defense (2.02). The Minutemen posted their highest goals total in the program's Hockey East era (151) and set a program record for power play goals (43).

On Carvel's watch, Minutemen garnered a host of individual accolades in 2018-19, highlighted by Cale Makar being chosen as the 2019 Hobey Baker Award winner. Makar and Mitchell Chaffee were both tabbed first team All-Americans, while Makar was named UMass' first-ever Hockey East Player of the Year and Chaffee earned the title of Hockey East Scoring Champion. Chaffee received the Herb Gallagher Award, Chaffee, Makar and senior forward Jacob Pritchard were all tabbed New England All-Stars, while Makar picked up both the Bob Monahan Award as New England's best defenseman and the Leonard Fowle Award as New England player of the year. College Hockey News selected Makar as its CHN Player of the Year and to its All-CHN First Team, while naming Marc Del Gaizo to its CHN All-Rookie Team. Additionally, the Minutemen collected a school-record six Hockey East All-Star accolades and Carvel was recognized as both the 2019 Clark Hodder Award winner (New England Coach of the Year) and the Hockey East Bob Kullen Coach of the Year.

In Carvel's second year at the helm in 2017-18, the Minutemen posted a 12-win improvement from 2016-17, marking the biggest one-year turnaround in program history and in Division I hockey that season. Among the milestone's set by Carvel's Minutemen in 2017-18, the program hosted and won its first postseason series since 2007. Makar earned a Hockey East Third Team All-Star nod and became the first-ever New England Hockey Writers Association George C. Carens Award (Rookie of the Year) recipient.

Makar and freshman defenseman Mario Ferraro were both named to the Hockey East All-Rookie Team, as well.
